

You are invited to an INTERDENOMINATIONAL

Service of Spiritual Reconciliation and Healing

For those who are seeking a knowledgeable Christian response to abuse,

We offer a cup of cool water to those who have too often been passed by on the other side.

at Central Seventh-day Adventist Church
Victoria St., (just off 8th St.) Saskatoon, SK on Saturday June 29th 2013 at 3:00 pm

This church service will recognise that hurting people have not always found churches to be the place of refuge that Christ designed the Church to be.

If you would like to participate in this church service by:

Lighting a candle of remembrance for someone who lost their life to abuse

Lighting a candle of victory over a past situation of abuse to encourage others

Or if you would just like to touch base with any questions or concerns.

Please contact Pastor Marion Duncan M.Ed.(Couns),C.C.C.,M.Div.

This is an opportunity for pastors and members of all Christian denominations to gather together and support those who are seeking healing from abuse.

Please be assured that no explicit details of abuse will be included in this church service. Even so, this is not a service for children.
